Authorities don't think prank was very funny

BY DAVID A. FARRELL

Law enforcement authorities are continuing an investigation into what turned out to be a bomb scare in the Cedar Point area generated by a device fixed up to look like a bomb.

Although it might have been a prank, authorities said they don't think it was very funny, and say they have leads that might lead to an arrest.

Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Agent-in-Charge J.B. Rideout said that if the person who placed the device along the seawall in the 800 block of North Beach Boulevard can be determined, he or she will be arrested and placed in jail.

Authorities spent over four hours on Sunday and evacuated a section of the road trying to determine if the device was actually a bomb.

A bomb-sniffing dog from Keesler was used and a bomb disposal unit from the Army's Camp Shelby in Hattiesburg was brought down also.

The device contained a base of moulding clay that looked like explosive matter, topped with batteries and a circuit board. Authorities said it looked real enough to make them take extreme precautions.

Authorities x-rayed the device and determined it was not explosive.

The bomb was reported to police about 8:24 a.m. on Sunday by a passing motorist, who spotted it sitting on the seawall.

A Bay St. Louis officer was dispatched to check it out. He said it looked real. Authorities here then summoned experts.

Commission approves water use ordinance

BY LIZ HAAS

The Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission approved a water use ordinance effective the beginning of fiscal year 1993-1994, starting October 1.

Commission engineer Carlos Cordon said, "You have enforced a sewerage use ordinance, but have nothing like that for water use. Without this water use ordinance, you have no rules."

He said, "The ordinance says you must provide potable water to clients, states who can tie to systems, rates and other guidelines."

Included in the ordinance are requirements for connections, disinfection, commission approval, materials for water lines, backflow preventers and charges and fees.

Charges for connection from the waterworks system to the property line are $2,000 for up to 2", $3,000 for 3" and $4,500 for 4". Service connections larger than 4" shall be paid at the actual cost of the installation per construction contractor's invoices.

There is a $15 charge for the reinstatement of any water service that was discontinued due to non payment of water bill or a delinquent account.

Monthly rates charged for water service are $35 for the first 12,000 gallons, minimum bill, and .60 cents for each 1,000 gallons or a fraction of thereafter.

The commission approved at its last meeting to double the rate for sewerage to equal that of water charges for Port Bienville and Stennis International Airport.

Cordon said the guidelines are standard.

The commission approved the general operating budget of $444,509, the airport budget of $219,220 and the railroad budget of $348,853, for the 1993-1994 fiscal year.

Budgets will be presented to the board of supervisors for final approval at its August 13 meeting.

The commission approved the construction of a building at Stennis International Airport to house the fire equipment.

"It should cost from $30,000 to $35,000 and hopefully, we can start the construction by the end of September."

The commission approved: —payment of $8,500 to Williams Paving of Biloxi for emergency repair of a 44 x 22 pot hole at Stennis International Airport;

—payment to Necaise Construction;

—payment to Sumrall Construction;

—the claims for the general operating, railroad operating, industrial park revenue, railroad car wash, airport construction, Port and Harbor construction, FAA high priority, T-hangar facility and Stennis International Airport dockets.

Kiln Water and Fire Protection District plans expansion

BY LIZ HAAS

The Kiln Water and Fire Protection District Board of Commissioners approved Tuesday to expand the boundaries of the district, upon approval by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

The area annexed, provided it is not already part of any other district, would be approximately 640 acres south of I-10, west of the Jourdan River, north of Bayou La Croix and east of Highway 43.

"We are already collecting taxes from that area south of I-10 that's not in our district," said chairman Cleveland Wyatt.

He said the area was allocated to the district to collect taxes because it was not part of any other district.

"This would be a natural expansion because we already serve that area with fire protection and collect taxes there," said commission attorney Michael Haas.

Haas said he spoke with the attorney for Mississippi Land-Casino, proposed to construct a gambling complex near the intersection of I-10 and Highways 603 and 43, on the possibility of working out an agreement whereby the district would provide water, sewerage and fire protection to the casino.

"We could possibly work something out with the casino, if they receive site approval from the gaming commission, that they give us money to match grants so we can build a centralized sewerage system for the entire district and we provide them with services on the basis of our utility tariff," said Haas.

The commission approved a resolution to the board of supervisors asking for the authority to provide sewerage systems in the district, when feasible.

The district plans to apply for state and federal grants for sewerage when authorized to do so by the supervisors, according to Wyatt.

The commission approved to advertise for an equipment operator and water department employee to service machines and equipment and to hire Frank Wilson as assistant to the manager of the district.

The commission ratified a resolution terminating the contract with the board of supervisors and the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission to furnish trucks, equipment and firemen for landings at the Stennis International Airport because of disagreements in the contract over payment.

The commission approved: —final payment of $16,995 to G. Dale Smith, general contractor, for new booster pump station and $2,997 to Garner Russell and Associates, Inc., consulting engineers, for fees on booster pump station and water well project, of which $18,301 is to be paid from Farmers Home Administration loan;

—payment of $775 to contractor Tommy Bilbo on building of two covers for water connections;

—payment of manager's claim docket;

—payment of the district claim docket;

—authorization for the fire department to order a set of gauges to check the water flow, not to exceed $200.

BY DAVID A. FARRELL

School officials also said bus routes will remain the same and there will be no double-routing.

In other matters during the two-hour session, the board amended the 1992-93 school budget to bring it in line with actual expenditures laid out during the budget year spanning July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1993.

Last year's budget shows that the school had actual expenditures of $8.3 million. Total revenue received last year was $8.5 million.

Revenue sources listed showed that $2.9 million was received through local sources, $3.8 million from the state and $1.3 million from federal sources.

Thoughts for meditation:
 If you have knowledge, let others light their candles at it.

—Fuller
 Jesus said, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned."

Mark 16:15 and 16
 Do it that very moment! Don't put it off — don't wait. There's no use in doing a kindness if you do it a day too late!

—Kingsley
 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

Proverbs 27:1
 There is no moment like the present. The man who will not execute his resolutions when they are fresh upon him can have no hope from them afterwards.

 Help me be aware, Lord, that today never returns. Give me a sense of stewardship of life that will make me want this day to count for You. Amen.

Nationwide fraud scheme hits some in Mississippi

The New Jersey Attorney General's Office has charged three New Jersey companies with fraud in connection with a nationwide scheme to send consumers a six-year supply of septic-tank cleaning products they never ordered.

These consumers are then allegedly threatened and intimidated if they don't pay for the products Attorney General Mike Moore announced. A total of 1,046 consumers from all 50 states filed complaints with the New Jersey AG's Office, including six Mississippi residents.

The three defendants are Enviro Safety, 725 River Road, Edgewater, NJ, charged with five counts in connection with the sale of its product; Enviro-Safety, Saaca Industries, 175 Fair Street, Edgewater, NJ, charged with four counts in connection with the sale of its product Saniflo; and Septic Safety, 344 Broad Street, Palisades Park, NJ, charged with five counts in connection with the sale of its product, Septic Safety. The president of Septic Safety, Joseph Carney, was also charged.

"These companies misled consumers by telling them they could try their product for 30 days and then return it with no obligation to buy," Moore said. "But when the package arrived, consumers were shocked to find a six-year supply that the company refused to take back. The companies then swamped consumers with phone calls and threats."

New Jersey officials stated that this is one of the most vicious cases of harassment they have seen in years. It is unknown how many consumers simply paid the bill to stop the harassment.

The defendants marketed their products by phone and direct mail, saying that the products would eliminate the need to pump out a septic system and would reduce all maintenance problems. They offered consumers a 30-day no-obligation trial period. Some consumers accepted the trial offer, but others refused it. Regardless, they were sent a package containing a 6-year supply.

"When they contacted the companies to return the product, consumers were advised they were liable for more than $130. Then the phone calls and harassment would begin," explained Moore.

In many cases, the company representatives would offer the consumers reduced payments, in between threats. Consumers further complained that the product did not perform as advertised.

New Jersey is seeking a temporary restraining order to prevent the defendants from continuing their unlawful business and collection practices. A hearing is set for 11 a.m. on July 29 at the Bergen County Courthouse in Hackensack, NJ. In addition, the state is seeking fines, costs, and consumer restitution.

Consumers in Mississippi who may have dealt with these companies should contact the New Jersey Office of Consumer Affairs, enclosing copies of any documents from the company involved, at P.O. Box 45025, Newark, NJ 07101. The Mississippi Attorney General's Office can assist any consumer in filing a complaint with New Jersey by calling 354-6018.

Bridge

The estimated cost on the Bay St. Louis project is in the neighborhood of $1 million and should be completed by May, 1994. Johnson emphasized, "The repairs will not close the bridge, only cause a little delay in crossing the structure."

"One of the reasons for such a long time for the project is because the bridge's continued use, as it is a very important artery to Hancock County," Johnson said.

Southern District Highway Commissioner Ronnie Shows told Johnson the DOT will do everything possible to ensure a smooth flow of traffic during the bridge's repairs.

For those traveling east, other bridges to be upgraded during the same period will include, U.S. 90 Biloxi Bay, U.S. 90 East Pascagoula and I-110 Back Bay Biloxi.

ON PATROL

Sheriff's Office Investigator Nathan Hoda reported the arrest of four persons for the August 7 burglary of a residence at Sandy Creek Ranch in Fenton Community.

Arrested were Patricia Brown, 19, of Bayside Park, Angelique Kinney, 21, of Bayside Park, Joseph Allen Schmidt, 21, of Bayside Park, and Marion Schmidt, 23, of Pass Christian.

All were charged for burglary and incarcerated in the Hancock County Justice Facility under a $3,000 bond each, of which all made bond.

"One of the girls cut her foot at the scene of the crime on some broken glass, and that led to the arrest of the others," reported Hoda.

Hoda said stolen items, which have not yet been recovered, include a VCR, satellite receiver, scrambler and an air compressor. Also, a golf cart was pushed into the swimming pool of the home.

Hoda made the arrests and is in charge of the investigation.

Hancock High Booster Club to meet Aug. 17

The Hancock High 50-Yard Line Booster Club will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 17, in the commons area at Hancock High at 7 p.m.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Once a year the Krewe of Nereids holds a big benefit Family Fish Fry and Dance. That is coming up Saturday, August 14, at the Hancock County Civic Center.

The fish fry will be from 4 to 8 p.m. and will include fried catfish, hush puppies and potato salad for only $5 per person.

There will be take-outs available, too.

Entertainment will begin at 8 p.m. Highlight of the evening will be a dance featuring The Shades from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Entry to the dance will be for a donation of $10 per person.

You can boogie to The Shades, and I am told they are a versatile and multi-talented musical group from the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Tickets for the benefit fish dinner and dance will be available at the door or can be purchased at the Waveland Drug Store, Coleman Avenue.

I realize there are a lot of newcomers to our area, and some may have never heard of the Krewe of Nereids.

The Krewe of Nereids brings a wonderful Mardi Gras parade to our Waveland-Bay area each year.

The parade is held on Highway 90 and is always the highlight of the Mardi Gras season.

Those who attend the parade usually catch a big bundle of beads, trinkets, cups, posters, etc.

The Krewe of Nereids is a ladies organization, and each participant spends a lot of her own money to stage this fantastic Mardi Gras parade each year.

This benefit fish fry and dance is an opportunity for the public to say a little 'thank you' to the ladies of Nereids.

Proceeds from the annual fund raisers are used by the organization to help bring a better and better parade each year.

I hope to see you at the fish fry and dance.

Next Tuesday from 7:30 to 10:30 a.m., the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Customer Service Workshop.

This workshop is the second in a series and will deal with front-line employees and services for area businesses.

The program is to be presented by Ed Newton & Associates, who is a sponsor to the Dale Carnegie courses along the Mississippi Gulf Coast and other areas.

For further information, call the chamber at 467-9048.

I was a bit surprised Saturday to see how many girls took part in the Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club Kids Fishing Rodeo. It seems more girls than boys received trophies.

There were some 400 boys and girls who participated, and more than half of the participants went home with some gift.

Through the kindness of many merchants and Sportsman's Club members, there were drawings for almost 200 prizes ranging from tackle boxes; rods and reels, fishing tackle, etc.

The only thing to complain about was the hot weather, and that is an area club members have no control over.

Congratulations to all the young fishermen and fishermen. I am sure you will be ready again next year.

Sportsman's Club members are already talking about next year's rodeo.

School bells are ringing throughout the area for our youngsters. Some schools open Friday, while others will do so on Monday.

Opportunities for education are not only for the youngsters. The Hancock County Schools District's Vo-Tech Center, located next to the Stennis Airpark, is offering evening vocational courses.

Night classes begin August 23 and continue for 17 weeks. Some will meet once a week, while others twice a week.

Courses to be offered will include beginning typewriting, intermediate typewriting, advanced typing, and computer word processing.

Trade and industrial courses include air conditioning and refrigeration, auto mechanics, carpentry/cabinetmaking, machine shop and welding.

This is an opportunity for those who always wanted to learn a new trade or hobby.

For further information, call the Vo-Tech Center at 467-3568.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Retired military should write to support CHAMPUS

Dear Editor,

It is my understanding that Bill No. HR636 is meant to restore the CHAMPUS eligibility of current and former members of the uniformed services and their dependents. They have been excluded from CHAMPUS benefits because of their entitlement to hospital and insurance benefits under Medicare. This bill is presently being reviewed by the House Armed Services Committee.

I would like to urge all retired military personnel who are on CHAMPUS, or who have been excluded from CHAMPUS because age 65 has forced them into the Medicare program, to write to their senators and representatives, urging their support for this legislation.

Positive action on HR636 making it the law, could relieve much pressure and confusion which is now complicating the Medicare program and the health care system in general.

Sincerely yours,
James C. Phelps

Waveland citizens to pay price for mistakes

To the Editor:

Just when the citizens of Waveland decided the city government couldn't get worse, it did. At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on July 21 there were revelations of two situations for which the people of Waveland are going to pay and pay.

The first is the disastrous handling by the mayor of the negotiations with the State Highway Department over Waveland's obligation to move the gas transmissions lines so that the Hwy. 603 widening could proceed.

This project has been in the planning stage for several years, so it shouldn't have surprised anyone to find that the state was serious about requiring Waveland to fulfill its obligations.

The mayor acknowledged there was a problem to the extent that she filed an application for a grant to pay for Waveland's costs involved; but, in her usual fashion, she couldn't find time to file it on time and so the grant was denied.

As the situation stands now, the state will fulfill Waveland's part of the project and at a later date charge Waveland for the costs involved plus possible charges for interest, penalties, etc.

Estimates as to the cost to Waveland at this point range from $140,000 to $300,000, whereas it could have been done at no cost to the city if the city administration had done its job. Incidentally, the mayor now states that she discussed this problem with the board of aldermen many times at public meetings. There is no mention of such discussions anywhere in the record. The second shocker is that the City of Waveland is about to enter into a contract with Bayou Caddy Casino to handle the sewerage from the casino to the treatment plant for a fee to be determined in the future on the basis of estimated costs.

The joke in this is that the casino is to build sewer lines to a point near Central and Waveland avenues where they will build a new lift station.

The city of Waveland is going to build a new sewer line from that point to the treatment plant for which the city is to pay.

The mayor has stated that the two different sewer lines have nothing to do with each other. If anyone believes that they must also believe in the tooth fairy. This new line is to cost somewhere in excess of $100,000. What the city is to get out of all this is a new lift station and a modest fee as yet undetermined.

What do the rest of our elected officials say about all of this? From the reaction of three of them it seems perfectly alright to wastefully use the city's money and credit as long as they don't have to be bothered learning what is going on.

Let us hope that the citizens of Waveland will let their feelings be known before they are faced with increases in taxes and fees to pay for this, and these increases are to be in the next budget as sure as the sun will rise tomorrow.

By that time it will be too late, and the good guys (you) will have lost again.

Girls Softball success owned to many here

To the Editor:

The Girls Softball program was the best it has been in recent years due to the support of the community.

One of our accomplishments was to achieve community awareness of our program, and this was made possible thanks to the Echo's support.

The Echo played a major part in informing the public on the girls' accomplishments and letting them know the program was alive and doing well.

I truly believe that this will be even more visible in next year's attendance at the games and in the increase in girls who will participate in the program.

Thanks again for the support, and we look forward to next season.

Sincerely,
Bill Carrigee Sr.

Border control

Millions of immigrants have already entered our nation illegally. Hundreds of thousands more cross our borders illegally every year. It is a major problem that must be faced.

The result of this influx is that our health, education and public assistance programs, which already are overwhelmed trying to provide for American citizens, are struggling and costing taxpayers billions.

While we are all sympathetic to the problems that cause these illegal immigrants to seek out a better future by coming to the United States, we just cannot accept everyone who wants to live in our great country.

Our nation cannot remain great unless we finally gain control of our borders. President Clinton recently gave us a glimpse of an evolving proposal that I believe could be a major step forward.

The president's proposal, as it now appears to stand, looks good. It includes:

— Hire up to 600 additional border patrol agents;

— Create a $5 million rewards program for information on terrorists;

— Help the international airline industry to toughen its inspection of passengers entering the U.S.;

— Beef up penalties by applying federal racketeering laws to the smuggling of aliens; and,

— Set up an "asylum corps" of officials at ports of entry to review claims for political asylum so that these applications can be approved or rejected much more quickly.

The Washington Times has reported on July 28 that President Clinton's proposal, which is still in the works, "could lead to same-day expulsions at airports and seaports for immigrants who arrive without proper documents and no credible claims for political asylum."

Our country needs tougher laws to govern the handling and deportation of illegals. I would urge the president to push this plan forward. From what I have heard so far, he is clearly on the right track on this issue.

Most illegal immigrants come to this country in search of a better life for themselves and their families, but a number of them also come to prey on the American people. They may be drug pushers or other criminals. Some may even be terrorists who have slipped across our borders to reign terror on our citizens.

The criminals that bombed the World Trade Center in New York were Islamic terrorists who illegally crossed our borders. Aliens such as these deserve no mercy and must be stopped before they can prey upon our citizens.

It's time we take a stand and protect American citizens from the criminals and terrorists who come to the U.S. illegally. I hope the president will follow through with this border plan. If he does, I'll support it.

South Mississippi junior colleges award Taylor scholarships

Congressman Gene Taylor announced that South Mississippi's junior colleges will award congressional scholarships to 21 outstanding high school graduates from Jackson, Stone, Harrison, Lamar, Hancock, Pearl River, Perry, Greene and Forrest counties.

The 12 scholarship winners will attend either Pearl River Community College, Jones County Junior College or Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College's Jefferson Davis, Jackson County or Perkinston campus. The $700 scholarships will be awarded August 15 and Jan. 15.

Among the scholarship recipients is Patricia Chevis of Bay St. Louis who will attend Pearl River Community College and Chris Ladner of Pass Christian, who will attend Jefferson Davis Junior College.

The scholarships are awarded every year as a direct result of the U.S. House of Representatives approval of a Congressional pay raise in 1989. Rep. Taylor voted against the pay raise and chose to direct those funds to the Gene Taylor scholarship fund to assist South Mississippi high school stu-

STREET TALK

Do you favor the 4.5 cent per gallon gas tax increase included in Clinton's recently passed deficit-reduction package?

"I am not for it. They are basically doing the same thing that Bush did, and that didn't work. If they would spend it to actually reduce the deficit it would help, but I don't think they will do that."

Steve Hampton

"It's not cut and dried. Anytime you increase anything it is a hardship on some. We must be willing to make a sacrifice for the greater good."

Toni Smith

"I think it stinks. But what can we do because they'll do it anyway and spend it on Congressional pay raises."

Jack Andrews

"What good will it do for us to say no. They are going to do what they want to do, anyhow. They can do what they want to do."

"That's tough. I favor anything to cut the deficit, but I think they could start with cutting some of the high salaries and pensions that Washington politicians get."

Board discusses comp time policy

BY LIZ HAAS

The Hancock County School Board discussed at a August 2 meeting the adoption of a policy on compensatory time and compensatory time off for the school district.

"We need to adopt a written policy on this," said Superintendent Myrna Bourgeois.

The superintendent was instructed to name a committee to develop a policy to recommend to the board on comp time for the next regular meeting.

Board attorney Steve Benvenuti presented a revised contract for Dr. Jane S. Borne, consultant for the alternative school.

The board approved the addendum and modifications of the contract and to pay Borne on September 15, the remaining $9,000 of $12,000 contracted.

"Computers are being donated to us for the alternative school," said Bourgeois.

Borne said, "Control Data Systems, Ole Miss and NASA have committed to help us pay the first year, and to assist us in finding funding after that."

Bourgeois reported that she wrote architect John Fields in regards to the roof at the high school.

"I told him that every time the rain comes, we find new leaks in the roof, and asked him to correct the problem," she said.

The board discussed the Lincoln Builders outstanding balance for the Junior-Senior High School and for the athletic building.

"If we have all these leaks, there is no reason to pay them. We want to pay them, but we want the work done first," said board member Carol Bustetter.

IN AND AROUND DIAMONDHEAD

By Margaret Williamson

NEED, NEED, NEED!
Your Diamondhead Fire Department needs volunteers badly. You've all seen the number of new homes and more being built, new business offices, the nursing home, a new medical clinic coming soon, and the expanded Diamondhead Academy.

We are rapidly outgrowing our fire department. The added number of calls, especially the emergency-related types are really straining the capabilities of the excellent department we have. At present there are only two firemen on duty at the station 24 hours a day. We need more help.

Training is held one day a month, with time and day selected at the convenience of the majority. All you retirees out there, won't you please offer some time for your fire department. Please call Bob Valigorsky at 255-7198 for more information.

DIAMONDHEAD SENIORS

Why not save your Friday mornings for a visit to the Bay St. Louis Senior Citizens Center where you will make new friends, do crafts and painting if you like, have a nice lunch, and stop and shop on the way home. The bus picks you up at the Diamondhead Dairy Queen at 8:30 a.m. and returns about 1:15 p.m.

Try it, you'll enjoy. If you need a ride to and from Dairy Queen, call Margaret at 255-1317.

ATTENTION, RESIDENTS

We can all help our great security department by having the appropriate Diamondhead stickers on our vehicles.

It is an invaluable method of identification that protects us all.

To obtain your sticker, please see Syble Paul at the POA office. Remember, if your vehicle is sold, please remove the sticker and notify the POA office as soon as possible.

DIAMONDHEAD ROTARY

Diamondhead Rotary is one of 48 clubs in District 6840 which comprises southern Mississippi and Louisiana.

The group meets every Thursday at noon for lunch at the Diamondhead Day's Inn.

Rotary is an organization of business and professional persons united worldwide, who provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations and help build goodwill and peace in the world.

Clubs meet weekly, usually for lunch or dinner, sometimes for breakfast, so that all members may enjoy each other's fellowship before they get down to the business of running the club and going over its service goals.

Diamondhead is so fortunate to have so many of its businesses and professional people involved in Rotary to share their expertise and talents with the other members of the group.

The new officers taking office from July 1 are Jesse Stoner, president; Alicia Gardner, manager of Diamondhead branch of Hancock Bank, vice president; Patrick Wild, manager of Peoples Bank, Diamondhead, treasurer; Susan Ritten, realtor associate with Coast Delta Realty, Diamondhead, secretary; James Williams, retired executive, secretary; and Tony Esau, Diamondhead Water and Sewer, sergeant-at-arms. Our Diamondhead Rotary is alive and well.

HEAVENLY VOICES

MYSTERY GUEST

Diamondhead folks, if you haven't gotten your tickets for the Diamondhead production of Allen Toussaint & Co. in concert at the Diamondhead Country Club this Sunday, 7 p.m., you're missing.

Please call Carol Novak at 255-6042 for ticket information. Hey ya'll, you just can't miss this one.

bed for a time every morning and try to think of good things. That he was healthy, that his mind was alert, that his work was interesting, that the future looked bright, and that many people trusted him.

Then he would get up to enter a world filled with good things, good people and good opportunities. It is a technique that can make your day, despite the fact that you may face some bad situations.

You can pretty well condition a day in the first five minutes after you wake up.

The more good news you tell yourself, the more there is likely to be.

I wish you good things, good news and a wonderful, good week.

Bay, Diamondhead theatres to present 'Love Letters'

Special to the Echo
Clem Acker of Diamondhead and Nan Ehrbright of Waveland have teamed up to portray the two characters in "Love Letters," a comedy-drama by A. R. Gurney that tracks a couple's relationship over a period of several decades through their correspondence.

The duo says the play is both an actor's dream and a nightmare — a dream because there are no lines to learn or props to misplace, a nightmare because their vocal interpretations and facial expressions must carry the vehicle.

But, Acker said, "The dialogue is beautifully written. It's full of mood changes and, really, the writing traces the couple through their lives from children through adulthood. It paints their characters very vividly. The play is beautiful just read by oneself."

The play will be presented this month by both the Bay St. Louis and Diamondhead community theatre groups.

The Bay St. Louis production will be presented at the BSLT Playhouse on Boardman Avenue at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday as a special showing to raise money for playhouse improvements. Tickets are $7.50. For reserved, prepaid seating, call 467-2472.

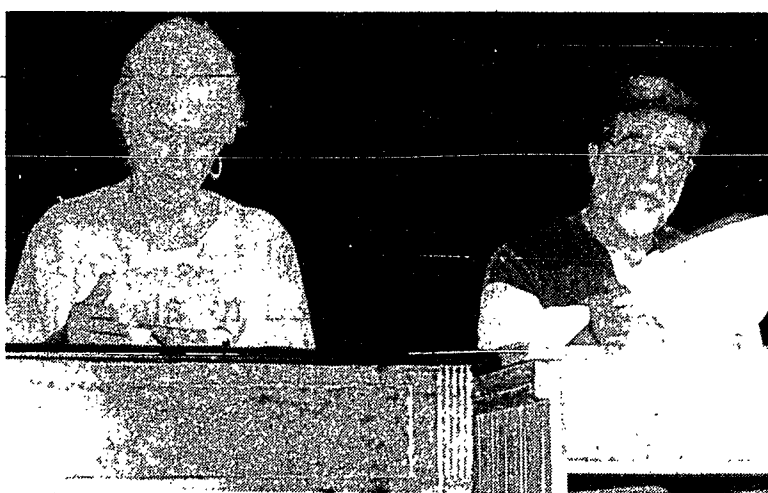

In Diamondhead, "Love Letters" will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 27, at the Diamondhead Country Club. Tickets are $7. For reservations, call 255-1814. Traditionally, Diamondhead productions are dinner-theatre. This show, an extra in the Diamondhead theatre season, will not include dinner, but there will be an open cash bar.

Acker portrays Andrew Ladd and Ehrbright plays Melissa Gardner. The play begins with the typical exchange of notes between second graders — valentines, invitations to birthday parties, scrawled drawings of their teacher.

As the two mature, their correspondence highlights the differences in their personalities and reflects the milestones in their separate lives.

"Love Letters" carries Ladd and Gardner into middle age. Despite his successful career and solid marriage and her failures as an artist, wife and mother, they remain linked by an unbreakable bond.

Acker, an oceanographer at the Naval Oceanographic office at Stennis Space Center, was "When I quit going to sea so much, I was able to get back into it here," he said.

Jones - De La Hoya

Unbeaten contenders vie Aug. 14 at Casino Magic

Special to the Echo
Roy Jones Jr. and Oscar De La Hoya, two of America's hottest young fighters, will appear in separate 10-round bouts televised by HBO on Aug. 14 at the Casino Magic in Bay St. Louis, announced promoter Bob Arum of Top Rank Inc.

Jones (22-0, 20 KOs), the IBF middleweight champion of the world, meets South African light heavyweight king Thulane (Sugar Boy) Malinga in a non-title match. Malinga is 35-8, with 13 KOs.

De La Hoya (8-0, 7 KOs) injured his left hand while training for a fight scheduled in Las Vegas on July 17.

The resident of East Los Angeles, and the only U.S. boxing team gold medal winner in the 1992 Olympic Games, will be ready for Renaldo (Little Red) Carter of Detroit in a junior lightweight battle. Carter is 27-4-1 with 15 KOs.

Jones, from Pensacola, Fla., was victimized by the judges in his quest for Olympic Gold during the 1988 Games in Seoul, Korea.

Now a professional for just over four years, Jones won his first championship this past May when he outpointed undefeated Bernard Hopkins for the vacant IBF crown.

Jones has set his sights on eventually winning world titles in the super middleweight and light heavyweight divisions. His opponent, Malinga, has never been stopped in 43 bouts, with four of his losses coming on points to world champions Lindell Holmes, Nigel Benn, Graziano Rocchigiani, and a split decision in England to Great Britain's Chris Eubank.

Jones, 24, is expected to draw a large crowd from his hometown, which is only a two-hour drive from Bay St. Louis. Malinga, nine years older, will arrive on site two weeks before the fight to acclimate himself.

De La Hoya, America's Golden Boy and the Pride of East L.A., turned pro last November with a first-round KO over Lamar Williams. None of his opponents has lasted into the fifth round except Mike Grable, who dropped an eight-round decision to De La Hoya on April 6.

De La Hoya, who hopes to challenge for the world junior lightweight title later this year, is meeting a seven-year veteran in Carter, 24, whose last fight was a split decision loss in New York's Madison Square Garden to Jose Vidal.

The Motown slugger and 20-year-old Californian will open the HBO telecast at 9:30 p.m. EDT.

Coast Electric awarded loan

Coast Electric Power Association has been awarded a $400,000 interest-free rural economic development loan from the Rural Electrification Administration.

Harrison County had sought funds to finance construction of a water treatment facility at the Long Beach Industrial Park. According to James B. Huff, REA administrator, the loan will assist the Harrison County Development Commission in attracting new business to the industrial park.

Two area manufacturers plan to expand their operations at the park once the work is completed. The project is estimated to create 100 fulltime jobs at the industrial park.

The REA is a federal lender of direct and guaranteed loans to rural electric and telephone systems to promote economic development.

GCCAA sets annual meeting

The Gulf Coast Community Action Agency will conduct its annual community needs assessment meeting on Tuesday, August 17, at 2 p.m.

The meeting will take place at GCCAA located at 403 Blaize Avenue in Bay St. Louis.

The agency is seeking community input to determine the services needed in this area. The public is invited to attend.

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

It's time to go fishin' y'all. This past week the Turtle was lucky enough to be able to be present at the final weigh-in for the Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club kids fishing rodeo. The

Kasey Koenann
Queen Fisherman
with shovel-head shark weigh center was by the American Legion Pier, right off Beach Boulevard. It was great.

There were about 350 kids who registered for the rodeo. Each and every kid, including the "big" kids, had a wonderful time. This is the 9th year this group of men have had this fishing rodeo for the kids.

I would like to say a few words about The Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club. These guys are a non-profit group that felt they could get together and do something good for kids. So, they set up a fishing rodeo for kids only. They spent several months each year out "scrounging" different items of fishin' tackle to give to the kids for prizes.

While I am talking about prizes, let me tell you some of the prizes that they gave way to the kids: 100 rods and reels, 25 reels, 25 landing nets, 15 tackle boxes, and about 150 or so other prizes. In other words, they had a prize of some type for just about any kid who registered in the rodeo as long as they were present for the final weigh-in.

In addition to prizes, they had trophies for first, second and third place in each category, as well as trophies larger than the kids for king and queen fisherman.

There are about 60 members of this club. They all live in the local area. They deserve a great big thank you for their efforts with the kids.

By the way, the group meets every second Wednesday of the month at their clubhouse in River View Estates. Their president, Sam Perniciaro Jr., says that if you want to come to a meeting and can't find the club house, to call him at 467-5324 and he will give you directions.

Onward to the report of what the kids caught. The most unusual fish was a shovel head shark that was caught by Kasey Koenann, 8. She said to make sure and tell everyone that she is a girl. (Did I do OK, Kasey?) Kasey caught the shovel head shark fishing the bottom with dead (she said fresh dead) shrimp out by Cat Island. She battled the shark for about two minutes.

The trophy for the biggest fish went to Michael Lynn of Bay St. Louis. A 29-pound bull shark. Michael had a lot of help from dad, Mick, and uncle, A.J. You see, Michael is only 4, and the fish was bigger than he. They fished by Cat Island using 40-pound test line with cut mullet as bait.

The Queen fisherman was Kasey Koenann. The King fisherman was Chucky Jordan, 11, of Bay St. Louis. The qualification for king and queen fisherman is very simple. The most total weight of fish caught.

The total weight idea is really neat. The kids bring in their fish in water buckets, sacks, stringers, etc. and weigh them all at once. The kid with the greatest total weight of all the fish in their bucket, etc. wins.

The other winners were: Speckled trout — Brad O'Brien, 11, Bay St. Louis; Flounder,

Many winners

Sam Perniciaro, left, Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club president, draws names as Shorty Karl, rodeo chairman, calls the names of winners Saturday. The ninth free Children's Fishing Rodeo sponsored by the Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club awarded some 200 tackle gifts through drawings, in addition to awarding first, second and third place trophies in each eligible fish category. A number of businesses donated the many prizes. (Echo staff photo by Ellis Cuevas)

Big winners

Kasey Koenann, 8; Red, Gary Crumm, 12; White trout, Kelly Koenann, 12; Channel mullet, Ashley Strong, 7; Croaker, Randy Bernel, 9; Green trout, T. J. Bernel, 9; Perch, Johnathon Fountain, 7; Crab, Christina Jordan, 5, of Kiln.

Chuckie Jordan had the greatest total weight of fish and was named king fisherman. I asked Chucky where he caught all of those fish and what was his secret method. In the true style of us decrepit "old" fishermen, Chuckie said he caught the fish in the water.

He said his method was "popping the cork and doing it." The bait he used was cut bait and what his dad called "credit bait." Credit bait, I found out, is artificial bait. Dad informed me that they caught the fish in the Louisiana Marsh.

The Gulf Coast Sportsman's Club asked me to pass on some information to other fishermen. They say that there are a number of fishermen who are concerned about having a viable boat launch, open to the public, at Bayou Caddy, especially since the casino is being built at that location.

Their next concern is the amount of oil that is polluting the water in Bayou Caddy. They claim that there are some days that the oil is so thick by the shrimp boats that they are afraid to light a match. The oil is in addition to all of the potato chip wrappers, milk bottles, plastic bags and other debris. They claim that if you see this problem and want action, you should call the Captain of The Port, U.S. Coast Guard, either at Mobile, Ala. or in New Orleans.

This week's wonderful, wise words: Teach a kid to fish and he has a good hobby for life.

Why didn't they have any categories for giant blue fin tuna shark, Turtle?

Beach run to benefit Easter Seals Aug. 14

On Saturday, August 14, the Gulf Coast Running Club, Century 21, Toucans and Bud Light will team up to sponsor the fifth annual Summer Run to benefit Easter Seals.

The event, a 5K course and a 1-mile course, will begin in front of the Coast Coliseum on Hwy. 90 in Biloxi. Runners, joggers, walkers and wheel chair participants are all invited to attend.

Scientific approach speeds up composting

Materials for composting can be very wet (fresh manure without bedding) to very dry (manure from an old barn, sawdust, wood chips or pine needles). Moisture content is calculated on a weight basis.

but when the value is low nitrogen may be lost as ammonia. The ideal range of values is 25-to-1 up to 35-to-1.

People who make large amounts of compost and are interested in speeding up the process do consider the C:N ratio and make attempts to adjust it to the desired range.

When composting sawdust, bring the C:N ratio down from 625-to-1 to about 30-to-1. Do this by adding material that has a lot of nitrogen — a low C:N ratio.

and zucchini as big as baseball bats — all of these and more belong in the compost pile.

At this time of year you're likely to have more green, wet compost materials than dry materials.

Most gardeners who compost don't seem overly concerned about the ratio of green to brown materials that go into the compost pile. They just keep heaping material on as it becomes available, knowing that it all will rot into some type of useable compost.

Few gardeners have sufficient material to try to follow a scientific approach to composting.

Yee! Holy Compost! Did I say a scientific approach? There is a scientific approach to composting, and following some simple guidelines will result in faster and better compost.

Two important factors to consider in composting are the moisture content of the materials being composted and the ratio of carbon to nitrogen, or the C:N ratio.

To calculate percent moisture you weigh the fresh material, dry the material and weigh it again, subtract the dry weight from the fresh weight, divide by the fresh weight and multiply by 100. But you don't want to calculate the moisture content of manure. Just use the published figures.

In the composting process, raw organic materials are broken down into simple compounds and reformed into new complex compounds.

Since composting is a biological process, water is necessary. At a moisture content below 15 percent all biological activity ceases.

At a moisture content above 65 percent, you are likely to have an anaerobic process which smells really bad. The moisture content of materials in the compost pile should be between 40 percent and 65 percent for the process to continue.

The C:N ratio is important because when the value is high the composting process is slow,

College checklist

Send freshmen to school prepared

As thousands of Mississippians prepare to leave the "nest" for that first year in college, parents are making sure all the necessities for life in the dormitory are packed and ready.

A check with Bonnie Reid, associate director for residence life at The University of Mississippi, to see what students need to survive revealed quite a list. Some students bring all the comforts of home to their dorm rooms, updating an old familiar phrase to "My dorm room is my castle."

Here's the list, along with some advice from Reid:

—TV, VCR and stereo system. These appliances should be coordinated with the student's roommate because a normal dorm room could not accommodate two of each of these.

—Small microwave and refrigerator. Studying apparently cannot be accomplished without snacking. Some students are opting for a new compact appliance called "micro-fridge."

—Carpet. Most department and discount stores have stocked the area-carpet rugs that feature finished edges. At Ole Miss, carpet is also sold in front of each dorm. The most popular size? Reid says it's the nine-by-12-foot area rug. But don't buy a vacuum cleaner. Dorms have them for students to check out.

—Milk crates. Most often these are arranged to resemble bookcases. The longtime staple is now available in decorator colors at stores. And speaking of storage, with somewhat limited closet space, Reid recommends limiting clothes to the current season.

—Lamps. Overhead lights need to be supplemented with lamps for late-night studying.

—Bicycle. Reid cautions that a student usually needs his or her roommate's permission to store the bike in the dorm room. Bikes are not allowed in dorm hallways, and the other option, of course, is outside storage. For this, Reid recommends sturdy U-locks.

—Linens, pillows and towels. With (hopefully) regular trips to the shower, a student will need shower shoes and a plastic bucket or other container to carry toiletries. Don't forget laundry baskets and/or bags and a good supply of laundry detergent.

—Telephone. This may vary from college to college. Ole Miss requires the touch-tone version.

—Small first-aid kit. Accidents do happen.

—Oh, yes, alarm clock(s). No dorm room is equipped with a "mom" who gently shakes, cajoles or drags a student out of bed. Try alarm clocks whose rings sound like Big Ben.

Carver in top five grads of Law Enforcement Academy

Tommy Carver Jr. was recently graduated from the Gulfport Police Department Law Enforcement Academy in Gulfport. He was in the top five of 218 officers.

Carver is a junior deputy with the Hancock County Sheriff's Office, sponsored by Pauline Ruhr through the Boy Scouts of America Explorer Program.

He has been with Hancock County since February 1993 and is a sophomore at Hancock High School. His parents are Tommy and Debbie Carver of Bay St. Louis and Robert and Lori Koller of Diamondhead.

The Gulfport Police Department sponsored the fourth annual Law Enforcement Explorer Academy June 12-19 at the Naval Construction Battalion Center in Gulfport. Explorer Scouts from Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Texas, Ohio and Alaska attended.

The Law Enforcement

Explorers is a career development program which allows young Scouts (boys and girls) to learn about the various aspects of law enforcement.

They received training in the history of law enforcement, corrections, accident investigations, self defense, first aid, community relations, firearms, etc.

During the week-long academy, the young participants were asked to stretch intellectually and physically. Their day began with physical training at 5 a.m. and ended with the last class of instruction at 5 p.m.

Law enforcement officers, judges, attorneys and other professionals volunteered their time to instruct the various classes. The advisors were Gulfport Police officers as well as officers from the other agencies represented.

The Gulfport Police Department established the academy four years ago in an effort to provide a summertime activity for young people as well as instill in them a sense of accomplishment in a job well done.

SSC band prepares for the season

The 1993-94 St. Stanislaus High School Band has the largest enrollment ever with 74 musician. Mrs. Choina, band director, says that the increase is due to the recognition the band received last year by ending the year with the winning of the Sweepstakes Trophy at the All-American Band Festival in Orlando. Mrs. Jackie Davidson is the assistant band director this year. Philip Garcia is the drum major. Matt Holder is assistant drum major and flag captains are Melissa Knight and Melinda Wiggins. (Echo staff photo by Janet McQueen)

Three St. Stanislaus band members participate in summer band camps

Three members of the St. Stanislaus band attended summer band camps at LSU, USM and Perkinson.

Matt Holder, assistant drum major, attended Louisiana State University's Drum Major

Camp. The camp, part of LSU's auxiliary camp which is attended by over 500 students, stressed conducting, score, reading, teaching and leadership skills. Holder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Holder of Long Beach.

David Webb attended band camp at the University of Southern Mississippi. At the camp's conclusion he received an award for outstanding performance in theory.

Webb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Webb of Pass Christian.

Dean Howard attended Perkinson Junior College Band Camp. He made second chair, First Band, and first chair in the Jazz Band.

Howard also attended the USM Band Camp where he achieved first chair, First Band of the Golf Band. Howard and six other students of the Gold Band will play at half-time during the USM/North Carolina game.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Howard of Bay St. Louis.

MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

3206 HIGHWAY 90 WEST POST OFFICE BOX 23305 JACKSON, MS 39208-1305

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on July 28, 1993, the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality issued Commission Order No. 2672-93 to the Hancock County Board of Supervisors which approved the Hancock County Solid Waste Management Plan.

The plan indicates that the county will construct a landfill at a site in the northern half of the county which it received a permit for in 1990. The county will not proceed with the construction if it receives an acceptable bid for disposal in a privately-owned facility outside the county.

The plan also calls for the construction of a new county rubbish disposal site, a waste collection site to receive trash from the general public and small businesses, a yard waste processing facility, and a strategy for reducing the amount of solid waste generated in the county by 25% by January 1, 1995. The plan also allows Mississippi Pumping Service to construct and operate a commercial rubbish disposal facility and Mr. Wilbert Thompson to operate a waste tire processing facility.

Approval of the plan removes the moratorium previously imposed by state law, and allows the processing of solid waste management facility permit applications that are consistent with the plan.

In accordance with Section 49-17-41 of the 1972 Mississippi Code Annotated, within thirty (30) days of the date of the Order, any interested person may request that a hearing be conducted regarding the issuance of this Order. Such request must be made in writing to Mr. J. L. Palmer, Jr., Executive Director, Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality, P. O. Box 20305, Jackson, Mississippi 39208-1305.

Any person wishing to obtain a copy of the Order may contact Mr. Bill Barnett at (601) 951-5119.
